

The Queenslander Pictorial.

AUSTRALIANS IN THE TRENCHES

Overlooking the Plan Hindenburg Line
Australian official photo copyright

PUTTING OFF THE RED-BELL FLAG, quarantine vessels in Sydney Harbour.

—G. White photo.

THE QUINSLAND LIVES COMPANY AT A BARRAGE NEAR AFTER THE DEPARTURE FROM QUARANTINE.

—Rosa photo.

HANDING OVERBOARD INSPECTION.

The ship was held up by a quarantine officer at the entrance to the harbor of Port Phillip.

—A. G. Simpson photo.

“BANDONED” QUINSLANDERS AT THREE YEARS.

They have since gone through life as special quarantine cases on the Queensland side preparatory to being “banded.”

—A. G. Simpson photo.

“ARTIST” IN BATH’ AT COULANDRA, ON THE QUINSLAND SIDE.
Bathes and fishes at their need, its fishing gear.

—E. J. Davis photo.

IN THE LOUISIADES

See Page 29

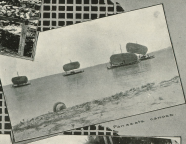

Broken Hill, which is gold mine at Milneba

Turtles, Conflict Group

Sun drying coconuts or Pandanus

Pandanus Garden

Loaded with coconuts

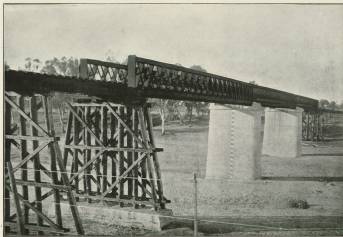

A steamer at Milneba

PURIFICATION OF LONG SERVICE MEDALS TO MEMBERS OF THE POLICE FORCE.
The presentation was made by Mr. R. H. Macdonald, M.P., at the Police Station, Perth, Tuesday—see page 10.

—F. H. H. photo.

THE BRIDGE OVER THE MARANG RIVER AT MITCHELL.

—E. J. H. photo.

A REMINDER OF EARLY EXPLORING DAYS.

L.B. Laverack photo

Grave of Duncan McIntyre near Julia Creek, North Queensland, in its original state.

The new headstone, erected in 1910

The tree on which the inscription is cut.

Inscription on tree near the grave, cut by McIntyre.

Remains of the stock of Highland Inn, during the war. The tent in the background is from the 10th Division. The other tent is, with bell top, is also from Highland.

A garden party in Colonel Wood's garden. Soldiers and sailors yell across and Kilgus do so, joined the education from the London band of 1910 in a hospital camp.

